Unit III

3. (a) Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions : 8

There seems to be a general opinion in this country that Sardar Patel was slightly of a harsh and rough temperament. Men call him the 'Iron Man of India.' He was no doubt an iron man in the sense that one could rely on him for secret and efficient administration. But as man, to those who had the good fortune of coming into close contact with him, he was kind and considerate. At a time he even became emotional where his personal friend and followers were concerned. However it goes without saying that the Sardar had a great skill for organizing affairs. He know the way of picking people and putting them in their proper places. Once he judged a man and found him correct, he trusted him fully and put him to do anything he wanted.
